“Mrs. Bourassa was a caring person and a good mother. I always enjoyed seeing her when I visited Worcester. We both were big Elvis Presley fans and she had many Elvis souvenirs in her home. My best wishes to her sons Walter and George.

Linda I,m so sorry that you left us.You were a great person with a warm heart and a bunch of fun. I'm saddened by you not being here and I will truly miss you .The times we once shared,the talks we had and the smiles we shared will never be forgotten. May you finally find the peace and comfort along with the love that you desired while on earth and may the sun shine on your forever up above. I truly wish I could of seen you before all this please forgive me for being busy. May you find the love from the Lord up above which you truly need while down here along with the comfort and support from the Lord. Hope THE RAINBOW ABOVE YOU LASTS FOR ETERNITY FOR YOU REALLY Deserve IT .A true friend ,fun person and a lot of joy you displayed while on earth. I'll miss you dearly. Linda L.
