

Raymond Zayas Jr

October 16, 1986 - September 21, 2021

Raymond Zayas Jr was born in Worcester, MA on October 16, 1986, He was lovingly known to family and friends as Ray, was a talented writer, artist, and an avid fan of all things music and gaming. A long time resident of Worcester, Massachusetts, Ray was a thought provoking, complex, and deep individual, who always engaged and conversed with anyone. Always a big supporter of his family members, Ray would always show care and concern towards his loved ones.

With a love for all genres of music, and an affinity for gaming brands such as Sega and PlayStation, Ray enjoyed discussing new hits, underground artists, and all kinds of video games. He will be sorely missed, and always remembered for his compassion, heartwarming laugh, and willingness to make everyone feel included. Ray was gifted in many ways, especially with his drawing and writing abilities. This is truly a tragic loss to all that knew and loved him.

Raymond was preceded in death by his grandparents Maria and Juan Calvo, his aunt Edith and uncle Ricardo. He leaves behind to cherish his memory, his loving mom Nancy Calvo and father Raymond Zayas Sr. His caring aunts Millie, Tati, Mariede and Carmen. His uncles Jorgie, Tato, and Tito. He also leaves a host of cousins, family and friends .
