“ Growing up, we lived upstairs from the Wolterding’s. Ronnie was always that feel good type of guy. Even when we were no longer neighbors anytime I would see him and hear his one of a kind loud voice yelling “Andreaaaaa how are ya babygirl “. He is surely going to be missed by so many people! Ronnie I am glad you are in peace now, free from any pain and burdens of this world. I pray for your family and friends to find comfort in so many wonderful memories he brought to this life. Love you guys xoxo

“ Sorry to hear of Rons passing. I worked with him for many years at Textron (Wilmington) Ron was a unique man for sure. I don't think I ever saw him WITHOUT a smile on his face. And that laugh that you could hear from far away !! you knew Ron was around. May he rest peacefully.
My condolences to Rons family.

“ They say walking canes are for older people well Ronnies dispelled that notion years ago, as a young and upcoming man he was A.K.A. the Count, back in Brooklyn street families had names for their members and Ronnie was the Count he walked the walk and talked the talk and was the epitome of swag before we knew what it was
Rest in Peace

“ *Nicole and family I am so sorry for your loss. I always had a smile on my face when talking to your Dad. Except the time he caught Nicole & I in his closet skipping school! Your Dad's memory now becomes a treasure for you to hold forever. I am thinking of you all...
